

| 2021/22Orange PlanSchedule of In-NetworkBenefits                                                                                                    |  | In Network Retail Pharmacy(network does include localpharmacies other than CVSthat participants may use) | CVS or Target RetailPharmacy ORCVS / Caremark MailService Pharmacy | All Other In NetworkRetail Pharmacies*                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Generic MedicationsAsk your doctor or other prescriber ifthere is a generic available, as thesegenerally cost less.                          |  | For short term medicationsUp to a 30-Day Supply                                                                  | For long-term maintenance medicationsUp to a 90-Day Supply          | Up to a 30-Day Supply                                                                            |
|                                                                                                                                                                 |  | $10(after deductible)                                                                                           | $20(after deductible)                                                     | Not eligible in plan;expense will be 100%employee cost (will notapply to deductible) |
| Preferred Brand-NameMedicationsIf a generic is not available orappropriate, as the health plan determines, as thesedrug list cost less. |  |                                                                                                                      |                                                                                |                                                                                                  |